Jake Divine hits the finish line, giving Forest Park a win in the 3200-meter relay at North Dickinson May 1. Other members of the team are Mark Hallmann, Lance Mongar and Derek Aberly.

FELCH—Both of Forest Park's track teams ran away with team honors during a five-team meet held at North Dickinson High School on May 1.

It was the Trojans' only competition last week. This week, they take part in invitationals at Norway on May 7 and at Rapid River on May 10.

The girls team had wins in 10 of the events. Ana Cornelia was a double winner, taking the 100 (14.27) and 200 (29.62). One win each went to Casey Ponchaud (1600, 6:09.63), Audrey Sholander (300 low hurdles, 51.25), Adel Isaacson (3200, 14:16.85), Gina Graff (discus, 105-4.5) and all four relay teams.

Sierra Sholander and Mary Grandahl were parts of three winning relays, and Audrey Sholander, Cornelia and Becca McCole ran on two winning teams.

Seconds went to Audrey Sholander (100 high hurdles), Isaacson (1600), Grandahl (400), Ponchaud (3200). In the 1600 and 3200 races, Ponchaud and Isaacson ran together all race, crossing the finish line at practically the same time.

Thirds were earned by Georgie Dohl (100), Kelly Hendrickson (1600) and Shaina Bortolini (long jump).

The girls team finished with 125 points, far ahead of second place North Dickinson (76) and third place Niagara (75).

The Trojan boys team was right in step with the girls. While they only won two events—the 3200 and 1600 relays—they had plenty of seconds and third.

Derek Aberly and Jake Divine ran in both winning relays.

Mark Hallmann (1600 and 3200) and Alex Takala (400 and 200) both were runners-up twice. Also finishing second were Tyler Lovato (110 high hurdles), Jacob Siler (100), Divine (800), Toby Ross (pole vault) and the 800 relay team.

Forest Park's boys team won the team title at North Dickinson by collecting 102 points. Niagara was second with 85, and the host Nordics (78) were third. Five teams took part.
