During the first ever Uphill Snow Drags, Goldbach Racing dominated in Top Gun Feature.

If your professional snowmobile racing team is going to have a successful weekend, the best place to do it is in your backyard. This is what the Iron River-based Goldbach Racing Team did at the first Krist Oil/Citgo Uphill Drag Races at the Caspian Ski Hill.

The three drivers to advance to the Wild Rivers Realty Top Gun Feature are all a part of Goldbach Racing. Winning the coveted Top Gun Feature was Iron River’s Chris Nordang. He defeated Louie Goldbach and Jim Storti by less than two feet on the 400 foot drag strip.

It was the Iron Range Trail Club that prepared the three racing lanes for the races.
