IRON RIVER—A program by regional photographer Jeff Richter will be presented on Friday, April 27, at the West Iron District Library, 116 W. Genesee Street.

"We are honored to have this incredibly talented photographer visiting our library," said a spokesperson.

PUBLIC

In Richter's second book, "White Deer: Ghosts of the Forest," he has teamed up with naturist John Bates to explore the world of albino deer in their habitat in the Northwoods of Wisconsin.

The program begins at 6 p.m. in the library conference room.

The program is free and open to the public.