

Autumn is musky time in Iron County

Written by Janet Rohde

Tuesday, November 05, 2013 9:54 AM -

During the second week of October, Dock Stupp (pictured) and Ted Kagy of Iron River teamed up to catch two muskies each day for three days. By combining trolling and casting with Believer lures, the action was fun, fast and furious with a total of 15 strikes. The fish were released to swim again. (Stupp photos)___PUBLIC___